

CONTAINERCHAIN TERMS OF USE

Containerchain (Malaysia) Sdn. Bhd. and its related companies (Containerchain) request that you carefully read, understand and agree to the following terms and conditions of use (Terms of Use) before you access and/or use our Website and/or Services. Website in these Terms of Use includes any webpages, microsites, mobile sites, and includes the online empty container software, owned by Containerchain. Services in these Terms of Use means all existing and future Containerchain products and services and includes Containerchain's hardware and software and mobile applications.

The words "we", "us", "our" or any of their derivatives refer to Containerchain. The words "you", "your", "yours" or any of their derivatives refer to the person using our Website and/or Services, or otherwise providing information to or communicating with us. These Terms of Use apply to and govern your use and access of your account ID, User ID and/or password (Your Account Information), as well as your access and/or use of the Website and/or Services.

Your access and/or use of the Website and/or Services signifies your agreement to be bound by these Terms of Use and the Containerchain privacy policy, which is incorporated by reference into these Terms of Use and is available on our Website (the Privacy Policy). In the event that any additional or different terms may apply to your use of the Website and/or certain parts of the Services (Additional Terms), those Additional Terms will prevail to the extent there is a conflict between these Terms of Use and any Additional Terms.

1. NOTIFICATION SERVICE

- 1.1 Containerchain operates the notification service via the Website which you can use to make a booking, notifying a container facility of your intention to deliver or pick up a container to or from the container facility (the Notification Service). The provisions in this clause 1 apply to your access and/or use of the Notification Service.
- 1.2 To use the Notification Service, you notify your intention to deliver or pick up a container from the relevant container facility by logging on to your account via the Website with Your Account Information and carrying out a booking transaction. It is your responsibility to ensure that the information you submit via the Website for your booking transaction is accurate, correct, current and complete to utilise the Notification Service. Containerchain will not be liable for any claims of non-receipt of services or payment by a container facility, including any non-receipt of services, notification or payment resulting from incorrect information supplied by you.
- 1.3 A successful booking transaction will be confirmed by the provision of a notification number once you have saved your notification in the Website. By saving the notification, you agree to observe and comply with the notification, these Terms of Use, the terms of the applicable container facility's carrier access arrangement, and any applicable Additional Terms.
- 1.4 In utilising the Notification Service, you agree and acknowledge that:
 - (a) you must make all necessary facilities available for a scheduled delivery or pick up of a container and use your best endeavours to comply with the scheduling arrangements as advised by Containerchain;
 - (b) you must advise Containerchain immediately via the Website of any actual or expected delays or circumstances detrimentally affecting your ability to effect a delivery or pick up of a container at a scheduled location; and

- (c) you must use your best endeavours to minimise the adverse consequences of any such delay or circumstance on the container facility, Containerchain, other users of the Notification Service and/or other transport operators.
- 1.5 You acknowledge and agree that Containerchain's service to you as part of the Notification Service ends and is completed when you have saved your notification and been provided with a notification number.
- 1.6 The fees charged by a container facility for your allocated time for returning or picking up a container as booked by you via a notification through the Notification Services (the Notification Fee) are set and imposed entirely by the container facility without any influence by Containerchain. You acknowledge and agree that Containerchain is acting only as an intermediary in its capacity as collection and invoicing agent of Notification Fees on behalf of the container facility, and is not a party to any transaction between you and the applicable container facility.

Any contract between you and the container facility in respect of any goods or services provided to you by the container facility (or vice versa), including the delivery or collection of containers, or in respect of any payment obligation between you and the container facility, including the payment and/or collection of the Notification Fee, is entirely between you and the container facility. Accordingly, you agree to pursue all queries, claims and disputes against a container facility, including those relating to the Notification Fee and/or refunds, directly with the applicable container facility, unless stated otherwise in these Terms of Use.
- 1.7 Containerchain will issue a refund of the Notification Fee, as instructed by the applicable container facility or unless otherwise required to do so by law, including under the Competition Act 2010. All refunds of the Notification Fee will be exclusive of any fees imposed by Containerchain for use of the Notification Service and any bank or transaction fees.
- 1.8 All requests for refunds of a Notification Fee that are made within 30 calendar days of the date the applicable notification was made, should be directed to Containerchain. Containerchain will direct that refund request to the applicable container facility for their consideration.
- 1.9 If the requested refund of the Notification Fee is approved and issued by Containerchain on behalf of the container facility, the refund will be processed in the same manner as the original payment method for which the Notification Fee was paid:
 - (a) Payment by credit card: Containerchain (on behalf of the container facility) will refund the amount directly back to the credit card used within 5 business days of Containerchain's approval of the refund. For all questions relating to refunds made to credit cards, please contact the issuing-bank of the credit card.
 - (b) Payment other than by credit card: You will need to provide us with the details for the bank account into which you would like us to deposit the refund. You will need to allow up to 5 business days for the refund to be processed.
- 1.10 If the refund of the Notification Fee is requested after 30 calendar days from the date the applicable notification was made, you will need to contact the container facility directly to seek a refund. If you have been incorrectly charged a Notification Fee by direct debit or credit card, you must immediately notify Containerchain in writing at support.my@containerchain.com, within 72 hours of discovery of the error with relevant supporting details and information to facilitate prompt resolution.

- 1.11 All payment terms, including all fees, charges and taxes payable by you shall be paid in accordance with your applicable container facility's carrier access arrangement and any applicable Additional Terms.
- 1.12 You agree that you will have no claim against Containerchain in relation to any costs incurred by you in using the internet connection to provide you with Services under these Terms of Use.
